Gary B. Kabat founded the firm with Bruce L. Mielziner in 1969. For over forty years, he has represented businesses and individuals in a wide variety of legal matters encompassing both the litigation and transactional realms of law practice.

Mr. Kabat's practice focuses on litigation for business clients in a broad spectrum of matters, including disputes related to contracts, franchise rights, employment issues, member and shareholding relations, real estate and business valuations.

Mr. Kabat also represents clients in transactional matters, including substantial business startups, the purchase and sale of businesses, and the purchase and sale of commercial real estate.

Another focus area of Mr. Kabat's practice is family law, where he represents individuals in divorce, dissolution of marriage, custody, spousal and child support, and prenuptial agreements. Mr. Kabat has extensive experience in family law matters involving sophisticated business and pension valuation issues.

He is a member of the Cleveland Bar Association and a past member of its Ethics Committee dealing with the enforcement of ethics rules and the policing of lawyers.
